70 YEARS OF UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Dr. Aparna Srivastava & Aditya Anshu O n 10 December 2018, it will be seventy years since the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was adopted by the United Nations General Assembly. The Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and States’ commitments to its principles, the dignity of millions has been uplifted, untold human suffering prevented and the foundations for a most just world have been laid.

Introduction to UDHR

The Universal Declaration was adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 10 December 1948. The Universal Declaration was adopted in the aftermath of the horrors and suffering of the Second World War and has been the cornerstone of the development of a global project committed to the protection of human rights, a project which the Preamble to the Universal Declaration declares to be ‘the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world’. The Universal Declaration was the first time that countries agreed on a comprehensive statement of inalienable human rights. It declares that human rights are universal - to be enjoyed by all people, no matter who they are or where they live. The Universal Declaration includes civil and political rights, like the right to life, liberty, free speech and privacy. It also includes economic, social and cultural rights, like the right to social security, health and education.

The Universal Declaration is not a treaty, so it does not directly create legal obligations for countries. However, it is an expression of the fundamental values which are shared by all members of the international community. And it has had a profound influence on the development of international human rights law. Some argue that because countries have consistently invoked the Declaration for more than sixty years, it has become binding as a part of customary international law. Further, the Universal Declaration has given rise to a range of other international agreements which are legally binding on the countries that ratify them. These include:...

CHOOSING A CAREER

Vijay Prakash Srivastava F or young people decision about choosing a career is possibly the most important decision in their life. This decision influences their lives in multiple ways which is simple to understand for all of us. Where we'll live, what we'll do, how much we'll earn and what life style we'll adopt is directly related to our job and career.

The space of careers is not the same that it used to be 2-3 decades ago. The world is changing fast and in this dynamic world, people’s approach to job and career has also changed. This in fact is a good thing. Our being strategic and contemporary helps us to be closer with reality which leads to better decision making in all walks of life. Decision about choosing a career should be taken with all seriousness to keep us happy, satisfied and without regrets.

In our day to day life we come across many people who have a job. Most of them will be doing their job with sincerity and dedication. But it can’t be said that all of them are happy with their job and enjoying it. For most of the people their job is like a routine. How good it will be to get a job of our liking in which we can put our heart and derive happiness from our working. Proper planning for our career may help in this. A career should be chosen. It shouldn’t just happen.

There may be two ways in which we can look for a job. The first is to accept whatever comes our way; the other is to understand our career objectives and then work on it to realize this objective. It is true that there is tough competition in the job market. It is for us to decide whether we want to get intimidated by this competition or become ready to equip ourselves to beat the competition. The truth is by proper career planning and hard work it will be easier for you to find your way through this competition.

Career planning is like setting goals and making decisions. Good planning and the right choice will help you get where you want to be. Ideas given here are intended to help first time job seekers and also those who are already employed and are looking for a change.

India has changed a lot since independence. The pace of change has been phenomenal during the decades nineties and twenties. We are counted as the fastest growing economies in the world. We have the largest youth population. New opportunities are coming up every day. We have to identify opportunities suitable for us in order to avail them.

For the earlier generation there were very few career choices and in most of the cases they continued with their first job till retirement. The situation before the new generation is different. There are varied opportunities available to them and commitment to a particular job or company for their entire working life is something, many of them can’t think of. The truth is majority of this young population will work in different jobs and organizations in their working life. It makes the whole thing appear more complicated.

There are young qualified people who could’ve got a decent paying job in companies of repute but decided to be on their own with some venture which they call entrepreneurship. Everyone doesn’t have this risk taking capability. Where one wants to work and what one wants to do is a matter of personal choice. Those who want to secure a good career should focus on the industries or businesses that have...

Mr dear countrymen, Nainakarra. On the 3rd of 2014, the pious occasion of Vijayadashami, we embarked upon a journey together through the medium of Mann Ki Baat. This journey has reached its 50th episode today. Thus, this Golden Jubilee Episode is indeed gilt-edged in every sense of the term. Your letters, phone calls and mail kept time pertain mostly to these 50 episodes. Anshu Kumar & Amar Kumar from Delhi on Mygov, Rajeshwar from Bhopal from Patna; on similar lines Monica Jain from Delhi, Prosenjit Sarkar from Bardhaman, West Bengal and Satish Pratap Singh, from Nagpur converse in asking a shared question. They are of the view that broadly speaking, the Prime Minister being associated with the latest in technology, Social Media and Mobile Apps; WHY did he choose radio as the medium to connect with his countrymen? Your curiosity is but natural; in this age when Radio was fading into oblivion, why did Mr Vajpayee turn to the airwaves? Let me quote an incident. The year was 1998. I was then a party worker with the Janata Janata Party organization in Himachal. It was the month of May; and I was travelling to a certain place. Evenings tend to get cold in the hilly terrain of Himachal Pradesh, and I stopped by at a way side tea stall and placed an order for tea. It was a tiny joint; there was only one person who would make & serve tea. He was not even adequately clad; it was a stand alone kiosk on the edge of the road. He first picked up a Laddoo from a glass container, offered the sweet meat to me & said, “Sir, eat this before the tea gets ready”. I was taken aback and asked him “What is the matter? Is it in celebration of an occasion like a wedding?” He replied, “No brother, nothing like that! Don’t you know? It’s a momentous, joyous occasion”. On seeing his rather jubilant exuberance, I asked him, “But what exactly happened?” and he replied, “In the morning a gold mine bomb today! I exclaimed, “India has exploded the bomb! I don’t get it”! Said he “Sir, just listen to the radio”! Indeed, the Prime Minister’s address was the topic of discussion on the radio. It was then that he elaborated on how on the day of the nuclear test, the then Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee had announced to the Media and how he broke into a dance on listening to it on the radio. It was he who had called me to see a lone tea seller in a remote, snow - clad hilly place, who possibly kept listening to the radio the entire day… watching that particular effect of the news on radio led me to realize & internalise that this was a medium that truly connected with the masses… and that it was a mighty means of getting across. Terms of the reach & depth of communication, radio has been incomparable. I have been fortunate to feel the essence ever since, acknowledging its power & strength. Hence when I became the Prime Minister, it was natural for me to turn towards a strong, effective medium. And in 2014, when I took charge as the Pradhan Sevak, Principal Directorate, it was my resolve to reach out to the masses with the glorious saga of our country’s unity, her grand history, her valour, India’s diversity, our cultural diversity, virtues embedded in our society such as Purusharth, Tapasya, Passion & Sacrifice, in a nutshell, the great story of India. From remote villages to Metro Cities, from farmers to young professionals… the array just prompted me to embark upon this journey of Mann Ki Baat’. Every month I would read letters to the tune of lakhs, listen to phone calls, watch comments on the App & Mygov. Weaving a common thread thereby involves them all into a fabric of internal conversation, we have been able to travel together, over this rather long distance of 50 episodes. Recently, All India Radio got a survey done on Mann Ki Baat. I came across some feedback that is very interesting. Out of the designated sample in the survey, 70% of respondents on an average happen to be listeners who regularly tune in to ‘Mann Ki Baat’. Most people believe that the greatest contribution of Mann Ki Baat has been the enhancement of a feeling of positivity in our society. The medium of Mann Ki Baat has promoted many a mass revolution. #india positive fact my highest inspiration, have been you. As a run up to each episode of Mann Ki Baat, there is an extensive discussion. This is an exemplary glimpse of the feeling of positivity, innate to our countrymen. People have shared their experiences, conveying the rise of selfless volunteerism as a consequence of Mann Ki Baat. It is a change where people are increasingly willing to contribute for the sake of service to society. I am overjoyed on account of the fact that through Mann Ki Baat, radio is rising as a popular medium, more than ever before. But it’s not about just radio… people are connecting with this programme and ensuring their participation through T.V., FM Radio, Mobile, Internet, Facebook Live; along with periscope through the NarendraModiApp too. I express my gratitude to the entire family of ‘Mann Ki Baat’ for being a part of it & trusting it whole heartedly. PHONE CALL-1 Thank you very much for your phone call. Your apprehension is not misplaced. The fact is, if the leader gets hold of a microphone with assured listeners to the tune of millions, what else does he need? Significantly, some taking her to greater heights. At times, when I look back, I am taken aback. Sometimes people who write in from different corners of the country say, “We should not haggle beyond limits with marginal shopkeepers, auto drivers, vegetable sellers at all”. I read a letter & then try to weave it with the essence of a similar letter. I would like to share a couple of personal experiences with you… who knows how soon these will reach our families; who knows when social media will diarrheal, decide to use revolution! The stories that you’ve sent across in the context of cleanliness, myocardial infarction, I am sure you never know where a tiny brand ambassador of cleanliness comes into being in various homes; someone designing emblematic elders home; or even admonishingly orders the Prime Minister through a phone call. Who would have imagined that a small campaign ‘selfie with daughter’ starting from a state village of Himachal would spread not only throughout the country but also cross other countries as well. Every section of the society contributed in joining in to ignite a process of transformation in a new modern language of change that the present generation knows. At times Mann Ki Baat is also sneered at but 130 crore countrymen ever occupy a special place in our hearts. Their hearts and my heart beat to the same rhythm. Mann Ki Baat is not about the Government, it is about the people. Mann Ki Baat is a very simple task for me. Every time before Mann Ki Baat letters are prepared, and we cannot decide who should share their ideas and view points on Mygov and Narendra Modi Mobile App. But now you can contact us on number - 18001178000; and by calling on this number, people record messages in their own voice. My effort is to ensure that all these letters and comments keep themselves Mann Ki Baat. I listen to many phone calls too. And as Continued on page 4
Yojana issue on 'Digital India' released

The December issue on Digital India focuses on the initiatives of Digital India leading to digital inclusion and empowerment common person. The articles in the magazine highlight different aspects and domain areas of the digital economy of the country. These have been written by a strong set of authors representing the digital sector. Union Minister of Electronics & IT and Law & Justice, Sh. Ravi Shankar Prasad, Secretary Revenue & CEO UIDAI, Sh. Ajay Bhushan Pandey, Sh. R. Chandrasekhar, Former President NASSCOM, Sh. R.S. Sharma, Chairman, TRAI & others have contributed views on the progress in Digital India during the last four years of this Government. The Power of technologies has grown at a pace far exceeding our ability to leverage them in key social sectors. The new era requires speed: in thought, in action, in governance and regulatory changes, this has been explained by Shri R. Chandrasekhar, the former president of NASSCOM, Shri R. S. Sharma, Chairman, Telecom Regulatory Authority of India has pointed out that the regulators have the onerous responsibility of maintaining a balance between encouraging innovation, protecting consumers, creating an environment for orderly growth of the industry as well as address unintended consequences of disruptions. Regulations should be adaptive, collaborative and impact assessment of regulation should be done. Cyber security issues in digitalization and the changing paradigm of Cyber Security and methodological approach has been given by Ms Rama Vedashree, CEO, Data Security Council of India. A special article on Aadhaar as empowerment enables and a game changer for the poor and for India, by Shri Ajay Bhushan Pandey CEO, UIDAI has also been included in the issue. Aadhaar ensures that the benefits reach directly to the deserving beneficiaries in a hassle-free manner. It also includes the article on inclusive growth and transformative impact of Digital India leading to ease of living by Ms Simmi Chaudhary, Economic Adviser, Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology (MeitY). The dynamics, opportunities and the growth in the Electronic Manufacturing sector of India have been highlighted by Shri Pankaj Mohindroo, Chairman of India Cellular & Electronics Association.

Shri Lalitesh Katragadda, founder of Indihood, Chief Product Adviser for Avanti Finance in his article has shared his idea of how Digital India is at the heart of Poorna Swarajya. Technology plays a vital role in the use and proliferation of language technology for Indian languages in digital devices has been explained by Shri Rajiv Sangal, Professor, Language Technologies Research Centre, IIIT Hyderabad. Rapid advances in IT has revolutionarises the role of libraries, therefore, the needs of digitisation of traditional libraries more and more for the growth and development in education and research is highlighted by Shri Ajit Mondal, Assistant Professor, Head, Department of Education, Surendranath College for Women, Kolkata.

The magazine provides an apt platform to showcase India’s rapid digital revolution as the country is generating future pathways powered by technology and leading towards Trillion Dollar Digital Economy.
the episode of Mann Ki Baat draws closer, I read ideas and inputs sent by you very much. My countrymen stay in my heart every moment and that is how the writer's situation and style resembling that of very aptly narrate in a voice number of regional people. The team from All reaches maximum number of work that Mann Ki Baat Radio, FM Radio, my colleagues from All India could not be included in comments which, somehow, attention to such letters and department should pay useful. An effort is also made Mann Ki Baat more numbers and will help make reaching me in even greater your views will continue to send in their disappointment, they not been able to include in persons whose names I have spirit represent my examples, emotions and carries my voice but the speaking, Mann Ki Baat and of the person. Honestly place and context of the able to relate myself to the remotest once where I spent most of the districts in our mendicant and have been to the various aspects of the year of our Independence. Yes, tomorrow is the Constitution Day. A day to remember those great personalities who drafted our Constitution. Our Constitution was adopted on 26th November 1950. The Constituent Assembly took 2 years 11 months and 17 days to accomplish this fundamental document. The Constitution. Just, imagine, these luminaries gave us such a comprehensive and detailed Constitution. The Constitution Day. A day to accomplish our responsibilities within a recent time. The Constituent Assembly was an amalgamation of the great talents of the country, each one of them was committed to serve the country which empowers the people of India and enriches even the poorest of the country. The unique point in our Constitution is that the rights and duties have been very comprehensively detailed. A balance has been struck between the lives of the people of India and the rights we fulfill our duties, then also our rights will be automatically protected. I still remember that in 2010 when doing the Constitution the Constitution were being celebrated, we had taken out a procession by placing our Constituent Assembly, the contribution of that great man cannot be forgotten who played a key role in forming our Constituent Assembly. This great man was none other than our revered Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar. My dear countrymen, two days back on 23rd November, we all celebrated Shri Guru Nanak Dev Jayanti and on the last day of November we shall be celebrating his 550th Prakash Parv. Guru Nanak Dev Ji always envisaged the welfare of entire humanity. He always showed the path of truth, work, service, kindness and amity to the society. The country will observe Guru Nanak's 550th birth anniversary in a grand way, its soothing colours will not only spread in India alone but will get spread in the whole world. All States and Union Territories have been requested to celebrate the occasion in a grand manner. Guru Nanak Dev Ji's 550th birth anniversary will be celebrated in a similar manner in all the countries of the world as well. Besides, a train will be run on a route joining all the holy places connected with Guru Nanak Dev Ji. Recently, while holding a meeting in this Choosing a good future. But this can’t be the only criteria. In fact you should look within before you look outside for a career. It always helps to make an inventory of your personality attributes. If your job matches your personality then the sailing may be smooth. For example a job in sales and marketing may not be the ideal job for someone who is introvert and does not like to meet new people. However if we assume that such a person wants a marketing job then s/he will have to come out of the introvert nature to become an effective marketer... The lesson here is to choose a job which matches your personality or brings the required changes in your personality to match with your job. It may appear difficult but is possible. Many people have accomplished this.

Equally important are your skills. All of us have few skills and some are more skilled than others. All jobs require certain basic skills. At higher level skills requirements become more specific. Make sure that you possess the fundamental skills for the job you are looking at. Again it is worth noting that skills can be learnt and developed. So in case if you find yourself lacking in some skill you may overcome with efforts and persistence. A degree doesn’t necessarily make you skilled. In various surveys it has already been advised that more than half of engineering graduates are not considered employable as they lack in many skills sought by employers. Don’t consider your degree or diploma to be a passport for your future job. You’ll require much more than this.

It is simple to understand why you should have adequate qualification for the job. If you’re still a student and have a particular job in mind find out the eligibility requirements. As an explanation those who want to work as an economist will require a master’s degree in the subject. For clerical and generalist officers’ position in public sector banks a graduate degree will suffice. Many of us get attracted to a job without having sufficient knowledge about it. We succeed in getting the job and then come to realize that it’s much different than what we had expected. It is advisable to collect as much information as possible relating to the job or position to have a realistic picture. Details given in a job advertisement should not be considered enough. Searches on internet may be of help but to get firsthand and information you may try to meet few people who are already working in those jobs.

A career strategy doesn’t get complete with only deciding the kind of job you want to do. You should have clarity about the kind of organization you want to join. For example if you are a graduate in mechanical engineering, various options will be available for you to choose from. It is important to look for the learning and growth opportunities it offers. The growth needs not be only in form of job promotions but also should include your personal and intellectual growth. It is always better to work with those organizations which have a clear human resource development policy and which invest well in their human capital.

There are more lateral career opportunities available now than ever before. So those who are looking for a change, are in a better position to exercise such option. However such a decision should be taken after proper analysis and should not be based on flimsy reasons. Some times it is not easy to clearly find out how better is the new job proposal. On some parameters it may offer an advantageous position but may also require few compromises to be made. You have to judge every offer in its totality and make sure that in most respects you’re getting a better deal. Don’t switch to another job just because it offers a higher salary. It may lack growth opportunity or the culture may be disappointing. So every major aspect the job has been evaluated. Also it is advisable not to leave a job you should be compensated for your time and contribution. Always keep it in mind.

In conclusion a job should offer you a good for you. If you are clear about this as well. Your career strategy should not be based on flimsy expectations.

The attitude to have a job just as a means of livelihood is considered primitive now. A new trend is being seen where people are relating their passion with the career they want to have. One doesn’t succeed in getting a job it is easier to blame the situation, system or competition. This is not going to help. You can’t be successful with your hard work, persistence and by equipping yourself with right attributes. Analyze your weaknesses and strengths. Weaknesses can be converted into strengths. It requires determination. Tune your mindset towards success, clarify your objectives and intensify your efforts to move closer to your career goals. Your career strategy should be well thought decision with the objective of making best of your knowledge, skill and aptitude and ultimately realizing your potential (The author is a career counsellor based in Mumbai Email: v225@yahoo.in Views expressed are personal.) regard I remembered about of Lakhipat Shaheb Gurudwara. This Gurudwara suffered severe damage due to the devastating earth quake of 2001 in Gujarat. But, the manner in which the local people joined hands with the state Government in renovating it, is an example even today.

The Government of India has taken a significant decision of building Kartarpur corridor so that our countrymen can easily visit Kartarpur in Pakistan to pay homage to Guru Nanak Dev Ji at that holy sight. My dear countrymen, we shall meet once again in the next episode of Mann Ki Baat and I am sure that in this episode of Mann Ki Baat I would like to say today that the feedback of this programme, one of the points that touches my heart most- is when people tell me that when we sit with all our family members to listen to Mann Ki Baat, we feel that the head of our family is sitting with us and sharing his ideas with us. When I heard the voice of you people, I felt satisfied to know that I am yours, I am one amongst you, I am with you.

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Facts and Figures

WHEN

The United Nations General Assembly adopted the Declaration on 10 December 1948. Human Rights Day is now celebrated every year on 10 December.

WHERE

The Declaration has been translated into more than 300 languages, making it the most translated document in the world.

WHO

The Declaration was drafted by a committee chaired by Beatrice Rosenberg (USA) and included representatives from the Republic of China, Lebanon, Australia, Chile, France, USSR, United Kingdom and Canada.

48 COUNTRIES

Member states voted in favour of the Declaration.

None voted against, 8 abstained and 2 did not vote.

4600 SIGNATURES

Signature in the United Nations has been celebrated. It is therefore timely to check their human rights.

70 YEARS OF...

The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and

The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights.

Other binding agreements which expand on the rights contained in the Universal Declaration include:

- The Convention Against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment 1984.

The values enshrined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights are as relevant and timeless today as they were 70 years ago. This is a challenging time for human rights advocates: a time when many human rights standards and norms are under threat, when we are witnessing a rise in xenophobic populism, profiling on racial and religious grounds, attacks on human rights defenders, and pushback against multilateral institutions, including this Council.

It is therefore timely to reflect on what “universality” means, 70 years on, and its applicability to today’s challenges:

- It means that all human beings are entitled to full realization of all of their rights, without exception. It means that migrants don’t check their human rights.

- UDHR in detail

The UDHR has an amazing legacy. Its universal appeal is reflected in the fact that it holds the Guinness World Record as the most translated document – available to date in 512 languages, from Abkhaz to Zulu.

As stated in the preamble, “recognition of the inherent dignity and of the equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world.” The Declaration empowers all of us to stand up for our own human rights and those of others.

The Declaration is a living document, universal in scope and fiercely relevant to each individual.

Article 1

Article 1

All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights. They are endowed with reason and conscience and should act towards one another in a spirit of brotherhood.

Article 2

Everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration, without distinction of any kind, such as race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status.

Furthermore, no distinction shall be made on the basis of the political, jurisdictional or international status of the country or territory to which a person belongs, whether it be independent trust, non-self-governing or under any other limitation of sovereignty.

Article 3

Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person.

Article 4

No one shall be held in slavery or servitude; slavery and the slave trade shall be prohibited in all their forms.

Article 5

No one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

Article 6

Everyone has the right to recognition everywhere as a person before the law.

Article 7

Everyone is entitled to equal protection of the law without any discrimination.

Article 8

Everyone has the right to respect for his privacy, family, home and correspondence.

Article 9

Everyone is entitled to freedom of movement and residence within the borders of each State.

Article 10

Everyone has the right to leave any country, including his own, and to return to his country.

Article 11

Everyone has the right to seek and to enjoy in other countries asylum from persecution.

This right may not be invoked in the case of prosecutions genuinely arising from non-political crimes or from acts contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations.

Article 12

Everyone has the right to a nationality.

No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his nationality nor denied the right to change his nationality.

Article 13

Everyone has the right to freedom of movement and residence within the borders of each State.

Article 14

Everyone has the right to freedom from movement and residence within the borders of each State.

Article 15

Everyone has the right to own property alone as well as in association with others.

No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his property.

Article 16

Everyone has the right to marry and to found a family.

No one shall be subject to interference with his family, home or correspondence, nor to attacks upon his honour and reputation.

Everyone has the right to the protection of the law against such interference or attacks.

Article 17

Everyone has the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion; this right includes freedom to change his religion or belief, and freedom, either alone or in community with others, to manifest his religion or belief in teaching, practice, worship and observance.

Article 18

Everyone has the right to expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers.

Article 19

Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers.

Article 20

Everyone has the right to freedom of peaceful assembly and association.

No one may be compelled to belong to an association.

Article 21

Everyone has the right to take part in government
The Universal Declaration of Human Rights empowers all. Human rights are relevant to all of us, every day. Our shared humanity is rooted in these universal values. Equality, justice and freedom prevent violence and sustain peace. Wherever and whenever humanity’s values are abandoned, we all are at greater risk.

We need to stand up for our rights and those of others.

#STANDUP4HUMANRIGHTS

to free & compulsory education, promotion of welfare of people, equal justice & free legal aid and the principles of policy to be followed by the State."

However, respect for human rights as a part of its social philosophy has existed in the Indian ethos for a long time.

Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993 (As amended in 2006) provided for the constitution of a National Human Rights Commission at the Union level, with State Human Rights Commissions in States and Human Rights Courts for better protection of Human Rights and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

The National Human Rights Commission and the State Human Rights Commissions are now very much a part of the life of the nation and, increasingly, of consequence to the quality of governance in the country. Awareness of the rights guaranteed by the Constitution, and included in the international instruments to which India is a State party, has increased dramatically in the country.

Conclusion

The universal ideals contained in the Declaration's 30 Articles range from the most fundamental - the right to life - to those that make life worth living, such as the rights to food, education, health and liberty. Emphasizing the inherent dignity of every human being, its Preamble underlines that human rights are "the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world."

With the memories of both World Wars and the Great Depression still fresh in their minds, the drafters spelled out what cannot be done to human beings and what must be done for them.

Chilean drafter Hernán Santa Cruz observed that the then 58 member states of the UN had agreed that "human rights are inalienable - they are not granted by any state. This recognition, he said "gave rise to the inalienable right to live free from want and oppression and to fully develop one's personality." No one human right can be fully realised without realising all other rights. Put another way, denial of one right makes it more difficult to enjoy the others.

The human rights movement has made great strides in the past seven decades, but abuses still occur with saddening regularity. The anniversary of the Declaration is an opportunity to celebrate successes and recommit ourselves to the principles outlined in the Declaration's 30 Articles.

Movies can be transformative: Tourism Minister Shri K. J. Alphons at IFFI 2018 Closing Ceremony

www.Jobriya.com

Shri K.J. Alphons, Union Minister of State for Tourism (I/C) has said that the Indian film industry has made hundreds of millions of people happy, not only in India but also in other parts of the world. Movies can be transformative. Nowhere else in the world have we seen feature films on sanitation or toilets made. He was addressing the valedictory ceremony of 49th International Film Festival of India in Panaji, Goa November 28, 2018. Drawing a parallel between tourism and movies, Shri Alphons said that tourism and movie industry are closely related, since they have the single objective of bringing people close together and making them happy. In a country where many people have sacrificed their lives for their nation, there is plenty of subject matter for amazing realistic movies, he added.

Col. Rajyavardhan Rathore, Union Minister of State for Information & Broadcasting (I/C) said, through a video message, that cinema knows no language and that the 49th International Film Festival of India in Goa proves just that. “Films inspire all of us, they entertain us, they make us strive and above all, they connect us all as human beings,” he added.

Smt. Mridula Sinha, Governor of Goa; Shri Shripad Naik, Union Minister of State for AYUSH (I/C); Shri VP Singh Badnore, Governor of Punjab; Shri Vijay Sardesai, Minister for Town and Country Planning, Goa; Shri Manoj Sinha, Member of Parliament; Shri Amit Khare, Secretary, Ministry of Information & Broadcasting; Shri Dharmendra Sharma, Chief Secretary of Goa; and other officials were present on the occasion.

Many renowned film personalities such as IFFI 2018 Lifetime Achievement Awardee Dan Wolman, Anil Kapoor, Arbaaz Khan (son of master screenwriter Salim Khan), Indian Panorama Jury Chief Rahul Raiwal, Rakeysh Omprakash Mehra and Kabir Bedi too attended the closing ceremony.

Stating that the 49th edition has been a great success, Shri Khare said that film bazaar has elicited response from various countries across the world. He said that Israel has been the focus country and Jharkhand the state focus. Noting that the preparations for the golden jubilee celebration of the festival next year has begun, the Secretary said that the government would like to showcase the film culture of each and every region of the country and trace the history of IFFI from the 1st to the 49th. He added that the facilities at Goa would be enhanced, given the overwhelming response received from film-lovers. He said that this is being done, so that the 50th IFFI can have many more delegates than this year.

Shri Vijay Sardesai, Minister for Town and Country Planning, Goa said that regional cinema has to find a place in national cinema. Film makers should be encouraged to come forward to know Goan way of life, he added.

The nine day long festival of quality cinema concludes with the world premier of German film ‘Sealed Lips’. Various prestigious awards including Golden Peacock, Silver Peacock, Lifetime Achievement Award were conferred during the star-studded ceremony.

On the occasion, the IFFI Special Award has been conferred to Salim Khan for his Lifetime contribution to Cinema. Arbaaz Khan, son of Salim Khan, received the award on behalf of his father. Salim Khan revolutionized Indian cinema in the 1970s, transforming and reinventing the Bollywood formula, pioneering the Bollywood blockbuster format, and presenting genres such as the masala film and the Dacoit Western. Salim Khan was also responsible for creating the “angry young man” character archetype and launching Aamir Khan’s career. Ukrainian film Donbass, directed by Sergei Loznitsa bagged the award for Best Film in IFFI 2018. The award comes with the Golden Peacock trophy, certificate and a cash prize amount of Rs. 40,00,000, shared equally between the Director and the Producer.

Donbass tells the story of a hybrid war taking place in a region of Eastern Ukraine, involving an open armed conflict alongside killings and robberies perpetrated on a mass scale by separatist gangs. In Donbass, war is called peace and propaganda is uttered as truth. A journey through Donbass unfolds as a series of curious adventures. This is not just a tale of one region or a political system; it is about a world lost in post-truth and fake identities.

The Best Director award was given to Lijo Jose Pellissery for the film ‘Ee. Ma. Yau.’, who bagged the Silver Peacock Trophy and a cash prize of Rs. 15,00,000. While Anastasia Pustovit was awarded the Best Actor (Female) for the Ukrainian film “When the Trees Fall”, Chamben Vinod won the Best Actor (Male) for the film ‘Ee. Ma. Yau.’. Both received the Silver Peacock Trophy and cash Prize of Rs. 10,00,000 each.

‘Ee. Ma. Yau.’ is a stunning satire on death and how it affects human lives. Chamben Vinod plays the role of ‘Eesh’, the son who tries to arrange a worthy funeral for his father but is met with unexpected obstacles and reactions from different quarters. ‘When the Trees Fall’ is the story of the 5 years old rebellious girl Vilka, her teenage cousin Larysa and her boyfriend Yar. The film describes the gross poverty, ignorance and racism of rural Ukraine and takes place in the extraordinary, physical ugliness of the nearest city. Anastasia Pustovit plays the role of Larysa in the film.
