Dr. Vivek Kumar Mishra

Bharat Ratna Atal Bihari Vajpayee, was undoubtedly one of the most prominent and widely accepted leaders of our country who breathed his last on August 16th, 2018. An outstanding orator, born on 25th December 1924 in Gwalior, he saw India grow to new heights in his own life time. He earned the reverence of one and all because of his outstanding skills in the field of politics, prose and poetry.

The world has produced many tall leaders who got respect from the society, but very few received respect even from their critics, and Atal Bihari Vajpayee was one of them. Vajpayee ji served as Prime Minister of India three times, once only for 13 days in 1996, and again for 11 months in 1998, thereafter he served one full term, during 1999-2004. Atal Ji served as a Member of Parliament in Lok Sabha for ten times and elected to Rajya Sabha twice in his political career. He created history by becoming the first non-Congress Prime Minister of India to serve a full-term. He was conferred India's highest civilian honour Bharat Ratna in 2015.

Atal Ji was a devoted 'swayamsevak' of the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS), a unique social organization dedicated to India's resurgence. Regarding his association with RSS, Atal ji once prominently said in the United States that "he may not be the Prime Minister tomorrow, but nobody could take away his right of being a swayamsevak." He wrote about the RSS, "the RSS does not change only individuals, rather it changes the collective mind. This is the beauty of the RSS ethos. In our spiritual tradition an individual can attain great heights." He was a firm believer of Hinduva ideology. He was founding father of Bharatiya Janata Party. He imbided his values and strong traditions of national service from Dr. Syama Prasad Mookerjee and Pandit Deen Dayal Upadhyay. As a member of Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh, Atal Bihari Vajpayee was already politically active by the age of 16. In 1951, he started working for Bharatiya Jana Sangh, a political wing of RSS.

The Consumer Protection Act, 1986, is a socio-economic legislation to protect and promote the interests of consumers in a unified and effective manner. Consumer Protection Act on one hand is a weapon in the hands of consumers to fight against the exploitation by the sellers, manufacturers and traders related to defective goods, deficiency in service, restrictive and unfair trade practices. The CPA, empowers consumers to make informed choices; ensures fair, equitable and consistent outcomes for consumers; and facilitates timely and effective consumer grievance redress. It is the only Act which provides compensation to the Indian consumer and has a three-tier grievance redressal structure at the District, State and National level known as, Consumer Forums, where the disposal rate as on 1st Jan 2018 was 91%.

In India, there are large number of laws which have provisions for protecting consumers, but the consumer movement gained impetus in India after the enactment of the Consumer Protection Act, 1986. 24th December is a landmark day in the history of consumer movement in India as on this day the Consumer Protection Act, 1986 came into existence. On this day the Consumer Protection Bill finally became an Act in 1986, after the assent from the President of India. The Consumer Protection Act, protects the interests of the consumers against substandard products, increased prices through market manipulation, failed warrants, poor after sales service and unfair trade practices.

To bring citizens closer to the country and to give a corruption free account of governance, Minister Modi has taken the initiative of observing a Good Governance Day on the birthday of our beloved Atal ji on the 7th September, 2000. He also stated that “during his tenure, Atal ji’s efficacy in dealing with various issues has proven very beneficial for nation.” That is why Prime Minister Modi has taken the decision to have his birthday celebrated as ‘Good Governance Day’.

The purpose for observing Atal ji’s birthday as Good Governance Day is as under:

- Sustaining the transparent and responsible administration.
- Ensuring the welfare of the common man.
- Devising good and accountable policies for good governance.
- To give a corruption free administration to the people.
- To make people aware about the government’s commitment for providing a transparent and accountable administration in the country.
- To enhance the growth and development in the country.
- To bring citizens closer to the government to make them active participants in the governance process.

Atal Bihari Vajpayee strived for all above mentioned purposes throughout his tenure as the Prime Minister. Observing a Good Governance Day at his birthday will be testimony of his lifelong service. Moreover, observing Good Governance Day will continuously remind the Indian government that the ruling party should be impartial, development oriented and developed should cover all the sectors of the society for whom Vajpayee devoted his life...

Vajpayee on Economic Governance

During his tenure, Vajpayee ji gave prominence to programmes aimed at the country’s development, rather than serving petty political interests. The basic idea of good governance was put forward by Vajpayee in his address at Asia Society in New York on September 7, 2000. He stated that “empowering the individual means empowering the nation, and empowerment is best served through economic growth with rapid social change.” Indeed, these words reflected in his contribution towards the country. He not only improved the economy of India but also introduced several social reforms to uplift the unprivileged section of the society. During Vajpayee Government, India experienced one of its fastest periods of economic growth. India became an emerging economy with rapid economic growth with rapid social change.“ India maintained a GDP rate of eight per cent, the inflation rate was below four per cent and foreign exchange reserves were flourishing. Atal ji’s commitment to reducing the government role in running businesses and industry was reflected in his efforts to reducing the government role in running businesses and industry was reflected in the formation of a separate Ministry. The most important disinvestments were Bharat Aluminium Company (BALCO) and Hindustan Zinc, Indian Petrochemicals Corporation Limited, and Indian Oil. The Vajpayee government made another radical reform by introducing the Fiscal Responsibility Act that aimed to bring down fiscal deficit.

Vajpayee on Telecom Revolution

Vajpayee government’s ‘New Telecom Policy’ unleashed a telecom revolution in India by replacing fixed license fees for telecom firms with a revenue-sharing arrangement. Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd (BSNL) was created to separate policy formulation and provision of service. The creation of the Telecom Dispute Settlement Appellate Tribunal also separated the government’s regulatory and dispute settlement roles. The government ended the monopoly of Videsh Sanchar Nigam Ltd (VSNL) and VSNL was created to separate policy formulation and provision of service. E-Governance – A Central Message of the Tenth Plan

E-Governance, which can contribute significantly to better governance, is a major thrust of the Tenth Plan. I congratulate those States and Central Government Departments, which have already launched major initiatives in this respect. I am heartened by the fact that the judiciary has also recognised the need, for example, for speedy disposal of cases, and governance for speeding up the judicial processes. I urge all concerned to implement this strategy.

“Urbanisation is an irreversible process. Accordingly, conditions of living in our towns and cities must improve. This will require reforms in municipal fiscal practices to enable raising of resources from financial institutions and user fees for municipal services. The flow of Plan resources to municipalities and States should help to leverage such reforms.”

“Economic reforms and development planning are without meaning if the poor and marginalised are not enabled to better their lives. This calls for action on many fronts. A jungle of laws, in particular municipal, police, and forest laws, many of which have not been reformed since many decades, render numerous legitimate occupations of the poor illegal. While microfinance models of lending have been shown to be viable, the commercial banking system has yet to mainstream microfinance lending to the poor.”

“Governing Reforms, with Special Reference to e-Governance - A Central Message of the Tenth Plan, which has been echoed by a number of Chief Ministers, is the imperative of Governance Reforms to speed up India’s all-round development. Our experience has shown that adequate resources are not enough, and that the best policies and programmes can flounder on the rocks of poor governance and implementation. We need to bring about dramatic improvements in the functioning of our administrative, judicial and internal security systems in order to foster a dynamic and vibrant market economy. It is an issue that concerns us all. Since it is not possible for us to have different institutional structures in different parts of the country, I propose that we constitute a Sub-Committee of the NDC on Governance- Reforms to go into this matter in detail and present a set of proposals to the NDC, which we can adopt uniformly. E-Governance, which can contribute significantly to better governance, is a major thrust of the Tenth Plan. While microfinance models of lending have been shown to be viable, the commercial banking system has yet to mainstream microfinance lending to the poor. The Small Scale Industry (SSI) Sector, which has unequalled employment potential, faces a number of challenges, including availability of credit, technical and marketing support, and realising its comparative advantage in the context of globalisation. These are some of the directions in which serious-reform is necessary.”

The Vice President of India, Shri M. Venkaiah Naidu has said that the President, Shri Ram Nath Kovind ji's range and depth of ideas is immense and as Head of the State, the First Citizen of our robust Republic, he represents the essence of the Nation - its vision, aspirations, expectations - and above all, essentially its ethos. He was addressing the gathering after releasing two Volumes - 'The Republican Ethic' & 'Loktantra Ke Swar', in New Delhi on December 8, 2018 with Selected Speeches of Hon'ble President of India, Shri Ram Nath Kovind ji. The books have been published by Publications Division.

The Vice President said that the cornerstone of Indian ethos may be summed up in these wise words - Ekam Sat Vipra: Bahudha Vadanti (एकम सत विप्रा बहुधा वदिति) - Truth is one, wise men express it in many ways and this inclusiveness is the essence of India. Since the last fifteen months that Shri Kovind has been the President of India, he said he has been following his erudite addresses in which found an earnest call for inclusiveness.

The Vice President said that the building blocks of the Republican Ethic are equality, egalitarianism and education - themes dear to the President. These are the principles that motivated his unique journey from the mud house of a small village to Rashtrapati Bhawan, he added.

The Vice President said that the President’s vision and thoughts have covered a wide range of issues of national and international importance with a special focus on the challenges which India faces in the contemporary world. But, most importantly he speaks the heart of a common man, he added.

Shri Naidu congratulated the Ministry of Information & Broadcasting and the Publications Division, for bringing out these titles with a beautiful layout and design, that speaks to the young and old alike.

Saying 'The Republican Ethic' is an invaluable collection of the President’s reflections on a host of contemporary challenges and issues confronting India and the world, the Vice President said that we have to realize the strength within each one of us and get our act together. We must usher in a new era of social, economic and cultural transformation where we move away from ‘dreary desert sands of dead habit’ as Gurudev Rabindranath had put it, he added.

The Vice President said that political parties must evolve a consensus on the Code of conduct for their Members both inside the Legislature and out of it. Otherwise people might soon lose faith in our political processes and institutions, he said. We need to have more persons in leadership positions who are mindful of not only of “Constitutional morality” but also of “Institutional dignity” and “Individual integrity”, he added.

In her speech, External Affairs Minister Mrs. Sushma Swaraj said President Kovind's knowledge and command over diverse topics shine through his speeches. She said President Kovind is able to infuse the depth of knowledge inherited from country’s ancient past in his speeches.

Mrs. Swaraj pointed out that Indian democracy has been built on the basis of values of equality and brotherhood. She added that these values have continued to inspire the life and work of the President.

In his speech, Minister of Information and Broad-casting Col Rajyavardhan Rathore expressed pride that India’s leadership comes from the grassroot levels. He said it is one of the proudest moments for Publications Division to be able to publish President Ram Nath Kovind’s speeches and preserve them.

In his welcome address, Secretary, Information and Broadcasting, Shri Amit Khare said the two volumes of the selected speeches of President Kovind reflect his wisdom, erudition and firm commitment to the well-being of the teeming millions of India.

In his address Prasar Bharti Chairman Dr A Surya Prakash said, President’s speeches reflect his simplicity, concern for fellow citizens, commitment to Constitution's core values and the democratic way of life. He said, D for Decency must be added to 3 Ds of Legislature - Debate, Dissent and Decide. He said, when the 4 Ds become operative, 5th D for Democracy becomes a reality.

Later, Information and Broadcasting Minister Col Rathore called on President Kovind at Rashtrapati Bhavan and presented first copies of the released books. ‘The Republican Ethic’ has a collection of 95 select speeches in English out of the total 243 speeches made by the President of India in the first year in the Office. The speeches are categorized into eight subgroups - Addressing the Nation, diversity of India, window to the world, educating India, equipping India, dharma of public service, honoring our sentinels, spirit of the Law & acknowledging excellence.

The second book ‘Loktantra Ke Swar’ - is a collection of 109 speeches in Hindi which talks about different layers and levels of multifaceted largest democracy in the world - India.
