My Dear Countrymen, Namaskar

My Dear Countrymen,

O n the 21st of this month, our country, India, will celebrate the formation of the Azad Hind Government. Subhash Babu will always live in our memory as a great soldier and adept organiser; a valiant fighter who played a significant role in our Freedom Struggle. Through his dictions, he introduced the slogan ‘Dilli Chalo’, ‘Tum mujhe khoon do, main tumhe azadi doonga’, Netaji secured a place in the hearts of all true Indians. That file associated with Netaji be declared has been a long-standing demand for years. And I am happy that we could manage to do the same. I remember the day when we announced that netaji’s file would be declared open at the Prime Minister’s residence. We dwell at length on myriad facets of Netaji Subhash Bose, offering him tributes.

It gladdens me to see many places associated with illustrious soma major人物 of our freedom struggle in Delhi. Be it 26, Alipur Road, associated with Babasaheb Ambedkar or the Rajpath, the Rashtrapati Bhavan or the museum or the Kranti Mandir! Whenever you come to Delhi, you must visit the Kranti Mandir.

My dear countrymen, today as we refer to Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose, that too in ‘Mai Ka Mandir’ and that too a month before an incident from Netaji’s life. I have always considered Radio as an instrument to reach out to every section of people. Similarly, Netaji shared a deep bond with the medium of Radio and he chose this very medium to converse with countrymen.

In 1942, Subhash Babu introduced Azad Hind Radio through it to communicate with soldiers of the Indian National Army. Netaji Subhash Bose had a distinct style of opening a broadcast. In the opening he would begin with, “This is Subhash Chandra Bose speaking to you over the Azad Hind Radio...” These words were very popular amongst the people. Similarly, Netaji shared a deep bond with the medium of Radio and he chose this very medium to converse with countrymen.

This year, our Country will undergo Lok Sabha elections. The first Lok Sabha elections took place in the 21st Century will exercise their Right to Vote in the Lok Sabha Elections. They face the opportunity to shoulder responsibilities pertaining to the Country. They have embarked upon the journey of being partners in Nation building. The time has now come for a confluence of individual dreams and the Nation's dream. I urge the young generation to register themselves as voters, if they are eligible. All of us must realise that being a voter, earning the right to vote is an important rite of passage in one’s life; it’s one of the privileges that we enjoy. The sentiment that voting is our sacred duty, should grow within us. It is also not to vote, should pain one. One should be saddened to witness any wrong taking place in the constituency.

I had not cast my vote... that day I did not go and vote... and as a result, I could not participate in the election day. We have to realise the importance of this responsibility of ours. This must be our leaning; this must be our disposition. This inclination should be ingrained within us like a sanskara. I urge everyone to come forward and jointly contribute in campaigning for spreading awareness on voter registration. If everyone one’s vote on the day of polling, I sincerely hope that large numbers of eligible young people will get themselves registered as voters, thus forging a partnership in the quest to further strengthen our democracy.

I appreciate the Election Commission for continuing to strive to ensure the strengthening of our democracy. I believe that the Election Commissions of all states, security personnel and other staff members who contribute in ensuring strict adherence to the code of conduct, is the beauty of our democracy.

Whereas we hear of a polling station at 15,000 feet above sea level in Himachal Pradesh we also learn to do the same. The Azad Hind Radio. PM interacts with students and parents at "Pariksha Pe Charcha 2.0"

The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi interacted with students, teachers and parents, on January 29, 2019, as part of Pariksha Pe Charcha 2.0 at Talkatora Stadium, New Delhi.

The interaction, which lasted for over three hours, saw students, teachers and parents relax, laugh, and repeatedly applaud the Prime Minister’s observations, which included a touch of humour and wit.

This year, students from across the country, and also Indian students residing abroad, participated. Setting the tone for the interaction, he described the Pariksha Pe Charcha Townhall as a mini-India. He said it also symbolizes the future of India, where new dreams of parents and teachers are too part of this programme.

A teacher asked the Prime Minister what teachers should tell parents who are stressed about the exams of their children, and also to give suggestions that could help avoid unrealistic expectations. A student preparing for the UPSC examination also asked a similar question. In response, the Prime Minister said that while he would not advise anyone to stay completely unaffected by an examination, it is important to understand the context of the examination. An examination, for an exam, is an exam for a paper, for grade Class 10 or 12, he asked the gathering. He said that once this context is understood, the stress will reduce.

The Prime Minister emphasized that parents should not expect their children to fulfil their own unfulfilled dreams. Every child has his or her own potential and strengths, and it is important to understand these possibilities of every child, he noted.

The Prime Minister also said that expectations are essential. We cannot live in an atmosphere of despair. "Life without expectations is impossible," he added.

Answering a set of questions on stress of parents, and parental pressure, the Prime Minister said that the performance of children cannot become a calling card for the parents. He said that if it becomes the aim, then expectations become unrealistic. He said that some people have the view that one can make 1.25 billion Indians have 1.25 billion aspirations. Those aspirations should also be expressed, and we should collectively raise our abilities to meet those aspirations, he added.

A parent expressed an apprehension that her son was once good in studies, but is now distracted by online games. In response, the Prime Minister said that online games are highly competitive launch services. "House for everyone" scheme contributed a lot to the 'Mann Ki Baat' contest? contest? of rural India whereas latrines have declared themselves free of open defecation. In response, the Prime Minister said that while he would not advise anyone to stay completely unaffected by a momentary defeat in an examination, it is important to understand the context of the examination. An examination, for an exam, is an exam for a paper, for grade Class 10 or 12, he asked the gathering. He said that once this context is understood, the stress will reduce.
