FAQs ON NOVEL CORONAVIRUS

The Ministry of Health and Family Welfare has mounted an extraordinary fight against the novel Coronavirus and is constantly monitoring every corner of the country for suspected cases. Friends, every day is a new day; weeks and months keep seeing change; years witness transformation, except for the enthusiasm and fervor of the people of India.
And, of course, we are no less... we are certain to outdo ourselves. The spirit of ‘can do’ is emerging as a new resolve. The sentiment of contributing positively to the country and society is gaining strength, day by day.

• “Somebody has succeeded in doing something - can we too achieve that! Can that particular venture be replicated to bring about a colossal transformation in the entire country? Can we establish that change into permanence, turning it into a simple, natural social habit? In a likewise quest to seek answers, the stirrings of Mann Ki Baat progresses with a few appeals, some innovations and a lot of resolves to do something. For the past many years, we would have made varied resolves. Just as, ‘No to single use plastic’, buying Khadi or ‘local’, sanitation & cleanliness, respect & honour for the girl child, or emphasizing on the new aspect of ‘less cash economy’! Many a resolve such as these came into being on account of our conversations & chats through Mann Ki Baat. And, you have been the ones who strengthened that.”
